

CHIDINGLY

Meaning: Chidingly: in a manner that expresses disapproval or criticism, often in a scolding tone.

1. She spoke chidngly to her dog after it tore up the couch.
2. The teacher looked chidngly at the student who had forgotten his homework again.
3. He received a chidngly reprimand for arriving late to the meeting.
4. Her chidngly tone made it clear that she was not pleased with his excuses.
5. The mother addressed her child chidngly, hoping to instill a sense of responsibility.
6. He felt embarrassed by her chidngly remarks in front of his friends.
7. The manager's chidngly words resonated in the room, silencing any further complaints.
8. Despite her chidngly nature, she only wanted what was best for her team.
9. She laughed off his chidngly comments, knowing they were said in jest.
10. He braced himself for a chidngly lecture after his poor performance at work.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chidingly>