

CHILDED

Meaning: 'Childed' refers to the act of infusing something with the qualities or characteristics associated with children, such as creativity, joy, or innocence.

1. The garden was filled with laughter as the children played joyfully under the sun.
2. She childed the project with creativity and enthusiasm, bringing it to life.
3. His eyes sparkled with happiness as he watched the childed moments unfold.
4. The community came together to support families and childed their struggles with kindness.
5. In the quiet of the night, she reflected on how childed her dreams had become.
6. Their efforts to childed the neighborhood brought everyone closer together.
7. The festival was designed to be childed, ensuring that every activity was family-friendly.
8. As the story unfolded, it became clear that the protagonist was childed by her experiences.
9. They wanted to create a space that was not only beautiful but also childed with love and warmth.
10. Her laughter was a reminder of how quickly time passes when life is childed with joy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/childed>