

CHILLINESS

Meaning: Chilliness refers to a feeling of coldness or an emotionally distant, unwelcoming demeanor.

1. The chilliness of the early morning air made me shiver as I stepped outside.
2. Her voice carried a chilliness that hinted at her displeasure with the situation.
3. As winter approached, the chilliness in the atmosphere became more pronounced.
4. He wrapped his scarf tightly around his neck to ward off the chilliness of the evening.
5. The chilliness of the ocean water took me by surprise as I waded in.
6. There was a certain chilliness in the room, as if the air conditioning was set too low.
7. Despite the chilliness of the autumn day, the leaves were vibrant and beautiful.
8. The chilliness in her demeanor suggested that she was not interested in further conversation.
9. I couldn't shake off the chilliness that settled over me after I heard the unsettling news.
10. The chilliness of the night was a stark contrast to the warmth of the earlier sun.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chilliness>