

CHIMB

Meaning: Chimb (noun): the resonant sound or reflection produced by a bell or light source, often evoking a sense of atmosphere or ambiance.

1. The chimb of the bell echoed through the quiet village.
2. In the dim light, the artist captured the chimb of the moon on the water's surface.
3. As the chimb of the clock struck midnight, the party came to an abrupt end.
4. The gentle chimb of the nearby chapel brought a sense of peace to the bustling streets.
5. Travelers paused to listen to the chimb of distant church bells.
6. With each chimb, the old clock reminded us of the passage of time.
7. The chimb of laughter filled the air during the family reunion.
8. She felt a warm nostalgia at the chimb of the familiar tune.
9. The rhythmic chimb of the drums set the pace for the dancers.
10. As the chimb faded away, so did the last remnants of daylight.
11. The artist decided to chimb her canvas with vibrant colors.
12. As the children played outside, their laughter seemed to chimb through the quiet neighborhood.
13. His enthusiasm for the project helped to chimb the team's morale.
14. With a swift motion, she managed to chimb the heavy door shut behind her.
15. They needed to chimb their efforts to meet the tight deadline.
16. The sound of the bells began to chimb softly in the distance.
17. To make the dish more flavorful, she chose to chimb in a variety of spices.
18. As the storm approached, the trees began to chimb ominously in the wind.
19. The innovative design would chimb the way we think about urban spaces.
20. In the meeting, he offered a chimb of insight that changed the entire discussion.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chimb>