

CHIME

Meaning: Chime: (verb) to produce a clear, ringing sound, typically from a bell or clock, often marking a specific time or event.

1. The clock began to chime, signaling the arrival of midnight.
2. As the church bells chime, the townspeople gather in the square.
3. Her laughter seemed to chime perfectly with the melody of the song.
4. The wind caught the wind chimes, creating a soothing, melodic sound.
5. Each chime of the bell echoed through the quiet streets.
6. He could hear the chime of distant bells as he walked along the path.
7. The harmonious chime filled the room, bringing a sense of peace.
8. They decided to chime in with their thoughts during the discussion.
9. With each chime, memories of childhood flooded back to her.
10. The rhythmic chime of the bells marked the passage of time beautifully.
11. The clock began to chime as midnight approached.
12. Her laughter seemed to chime perfectly with the festive atmosphere.
13. The church bells chime every hour, signaling time to the town.
14. As the music played, the wind chimes outside began to chime in harmony.
15. He felt a sense of peace each time the chime echoed through the valley.
16. Their ideas seemed to chime with the vision she had for the project.
17. The old grandfather clock chimed loudly, startling everyone in the room.
18. When they met, it was as if their thoughts simply chime together effortlessly.
19. The soft chime of the bells created a soothing backdrop to their conversation.
20. Every New Year's Eve, they would gather to hear the chime of the town's clock tower.
21. The church bells began to chime as the sun set over the town.
22. She loved the sound of the wind chime hanging by her window.

23. Every hour, the clock in the hallway would chime loudly, marking the time.
24. Their laughter seemed to chime perfectly with the joyful atmosphere of the party.
25. As the meeting concluded, the alarm began to chime, signaling the end of the session.
26. He could hear the distant chime of the city's bells as he strolled along the river.
27. The children's voices chime together in a delightful harmony during the choir practice.
28. In the quiet of the night, the soft chime of the nearby clock was oddly comforting.
29. The new year was welcomed with fireworks and the chime of midnight bells.
30. Her thoughts seemed to chime in with the rhythm of the music playing in the background.
31. The church bells began to chime as the sun set over the horizon.
32. Every hour, the clock in the town square would chime, signaling the time to passersby.
33. Her laughter seemed to chime perfectly with the cheerful music playing in the background.
34. The wind chime hung delicately from the porch, creating soothing sounds with every breeze.
35. As they danced, their steps seemed to chime with the rhythm of the song.
36. The old grandfather clock in the hall would chime loudly, waking everyone up at midnight.
37. His thoughts began to chime with hers, revealing a deep connection they had overlooked.
38. The chime of the school bell signaled the end of another busy day for the students.
39. Listening to the distant chime of the bells, she felt a wave of nostalgia wash over her.
40. The artist used vibrant colors to depict the moment when the church bells chime at dawn.