

CHINED

Meaning: Chined: characterized by a series of grooves or indentations, often as a result of wear or natural formation.

1. 1. The ancient wall was chined with centuries of weathering and erosion.
2. 2. In the anatomy of the animal, the chined vertebrae were clearly visible.
3. 3. The ship's hull was chined to improve its aerodynamic performance in the water.
4. 4. She chined the pork loin carefully before placing it in the roasting pan.
5. 5. The mountain range was steeply chined, with jagged peaks reaching for the sky.
6. 6. He chined the edge of the wooden beam to create a smooth, rounded surface.
7. 7. The landscape was chined by glacial movements that occurred thousands of years ago.
8. 8. The artist chined the clay model, adding depth and shadow to the figure.
9. 9. A chined joint can provide extra stability in furniture construction.
10. 10. The rock face was chined with deep grooves where water had flowed for ages.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chined>