

CHINK

Meaning: A chink is a narrow opening or crack that allows light or air to pass through, or a vulnerability in a person's character or demeanor.

1. 1. A thin chink of light peeked through the heavy curtains in the morning.
2. 2. She noticed a small chink in the armor of his stoic personality.
3. 3. The explorers found a narrow chink in the cave wall that led to a new chamber.
4. 4. He carefully filled each chink in the log cabin with clay and moss.
5. 5. The distant chink of glass clinking together suggested a celebration nearby.
6. 6. A single chink in the dam's structure was enough to cause concern among the engineers.
7. 7. She heard the chink of coins as he dropped them into the collection box.
8. 8. The sunlight streamed through a tiny chink in the roof of the old barn.
9. 9. They looked for any chink in the fortress walls that might allow them to enter.
10. 10. The chink of ice against the side of the pitcher was a refreshing sound on a hot day.
11. The chink in the armor was their weakest point.
12. She noticed a tiny chink of light coming from beneath the door.
13. The old fence had a noticeable chink, revealing decay within.
14. In the early morning, a thin chink of fog rose from the river.
15. He managed to squeeze his hand through the chink in the wall.
16. The chink in their plan was discovered by the competition.
17. A small chink appeared in the ice, threatening to break it completely.
18. The sun peeked through a chink in the clouds, casting a warm glow.
19. He fired an arrow through the chink in the enemy's shield.
20. The chink in her armor was a testament to her many battles fought.
21. The chink in the armor allowed the enemy to penetrate our defenses.
22. I can't seem to find the right chink in the wall to insert this key.

23. A small chink of light filtered through the closed curtains.
24. The sound of dripping water filled the chink in the roof.
25. She managed to squeeze her hand into the narrow chink between the rocks.
26. The old wooden door had a noticeable chink where the hinges were worn out.
27. The arrows flew through the tiny chink in the castle wall.
28. A cool breeze slipped through the chink in the window, bringing with it the scent of autumn leaves.
29. He used a small tool to widen the chink for better air circulation.
30. The chink in the icy lake was where the water flowed out during the spring thaw.
31. The chink in the wall allowed a cold draft to enter the room.
32. She found a small chink in the armor, giving her an opportunity to attack.
33. After years of neglect, the roof finally gave way at a chink near the chimney.
34. He spotted the chink in the enemy's defense strategy and quickly formulated a counterattack plan.
35. The chink in the ice revealed a hidden cave that no one knew about.
36. The locksmith worked on the old door until he found the right chink to pick it open.
37. A ray of sunlight shone through the chink in the curtains, illuminating the dark room.
38. Despite the solid appearance, there was a chink in the dam that threatened to cause flooding.
39. The chink in his armor of self-confidence appeared when he faced his first major defeat.
40. He carefully inspected the wall, searching for any chinks or weaknesses that could be exploited.
41. The chink in the armor allowed the opponent to win.
42. A narrow chink of light crept through the shutters.
43. He carefully inserted the key into the chink in the lock.
44. The stone wall had a small chink where moss was growing.
45. The wind blew through the chink in the fence.
46. She noticed a chink in the ceiling where water was dripping.
47. A thin chink of daylight appeared between the boards.

48. He squeezed his finger into the chink to remove the splinter.
49. The chink in the door made an eerie echo when it creaked open.
50. A ray of sunlight shone through the chink in the curtain.
51. The chink of ice in the melting snow was the only sound in the quiet forest.
52. She quickly slid her key into the chink in the old lock, hoping it would open.
53. A faint chink of sunlight filtered through the gaps in the broken window.
54. He noticed a chink in the wall and decided to peer inside to see if there was anything hidden.
55. The chink in the armor was just large enough for an arrow to slip through.
56. The chime of the clock tower filled the air, but she could still hear the distant chink of metal on metal.
57. The robin found a perfect chink in the bricks to build its nest.
58. He carefully wedged his tool into the chink between the stones and levered it open.
59. A warm breeze blew through the chinks in the log cabin, creating a cozy atmosphere.
60. The chink in the dam was small, but enough water was leaking out to potentially cause problems downstream.