

CHINKY

Meaning: Chinky (adjective): characterized by small gaps or openings, often referring to a structure or material that is not tightly sealed or is uneven.

1. 1. The light from the setting sun shone through a chinky gap in the old board fence.
2. 2. She examined the chinky brickwork of the historic cottage with great interest.
3. 3. The explorers peered through a chinky opening in the cave's rocky ceiling.
4. 4. He used a sealant to fill every chinky crevice in the log cabin's walls.
5. 5. The texture of the wall was rustic and chinky, adding character to the room.
6. 6. A cool breeze drifted through the chinky boards of the mountain shelter.
7. 7. They discovered a chinky passage that led deeper into the ancient ruins.
8. 8. The old barn's chinky roof allowed several beams of sunlight to filter through.
9. 9. She noticed a chinky crack in the plaster that needed immediate repair.
10. 10. The design of the screen was intentionally chinky to allow for ventilation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chinky>