

CHINOLINE

Meaning: Chinoline is a colorless, liquid nitrogenous base known for its strong, pungent odor, commonly used in industrial chemistry.

1. 1. Chinoline is a colorless, liquid nitrogenous base with a strong, pungent odor.
2. 2. The synthesis of chinoline is an important process in industrial chemistry.
3. 3. Researchers investigated the potential uses of chinoline in the dye industry.
4. 4. The laboratory used chinoline as a solvent for various organic compounds.
5. 5. She studied the molecular structure of chinoline during her graduate research.
6. 6. Chinoline derivatives are often used in the production of various pharmaceuticals.
7. 7. The production of chinoline must be handled with care due to its chemical properties.
8. 8. He measured the refractive index of a pure sample of chinoline in the lab.
9. 9. Chinoline was first discovered by the distillation of coal tar in the 19th century.
10. 10. The chemical reactions involving chinoline often require specific catalysts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chinoline>