

CHIP

Meaning: CHIP (verb): To break off a small piece from a larger object.

1. 1. He used a small hammer to chip a piece of rock from the cliff face.
2. 2. A tiny chip in the glass caused the entire window to shiver and crack.
3. 3. The computer chip is the brain of nearly every modern electronic device.
4. 4. They used a specialized chip to monitor the temperature of the engine.
5. 5. She found a small blue chip on the ground that looked like it was from a toy.
6. 6. The sculptor worked carefully to chip away the excess marble from the statue.
7. 7. A high-performance graphics chip is essential for modern gaming computers.
8. 8. He replaced the faulty chip in the circuit board to restore power.
9. 9. The chocolate chip cookie was still warm and soft from the oven.
10. 10. They implanted a microchip under the pet's skin for identification purposes.
11. The child loves to eat potato chips with his dinner.
12. I dropped my phone and the chip broke off.
13. The computer chip is an essential part of modern technology.
14. She painted a beautiful design on the ceramic chip.
15. The car's engine chip needs to be replaced.
16. The fish and chips shop was crowded with hungry customers.
17. He sat by the fire, warming his cold hands on a hot chip.
18. The geologist found a rare mineral deposit in the chip of the meteorite.
19. The chipped paint on the wall required immediate attention.
20. The chocolate chip cookies were still warm from the oven.
21. The chip on my shoulder has been there since childhood.
22. The chef fried potatoes in hot oil until they were crispy chips.
23. The dog dug up a small piece of the garden, leaving a chip behind.

24. She slipped on the icy sidewalk and chipped her tooth.
25. The geologist found a chip of rock that contained precious minerals.
26. The paintbrush chipped off a layer of old paint as I worked.
27. The car's windshield was chipped by a stone from the road.
28. He carved a small wooden chip into the shape of a bird.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chip>