

CHIPS

Meaning: Chips are thin slices of fried or baked potatoes that are typically crispy and served as a snack.

1. I love to eat a bag of crispy potato chips with salsa.
2. The dog jumped over the fence and ran off with my bag of chips.
3. Can you pass me some more barbecue-flavored chips?
4. The vending machine only dispensed a single serving of tortilla chips.
5. He spilled ketchup all over his shirt while reaching for the chips.
6. I prefer baked chips over fried ones because they're healthier.
7. The potato chip invention is often attributed to George Speck or Cornelius Vanderbilt II.
8. The salad bar offers a variety of chips, including blue corn and sweet potato.
9. She dropped the bag of chips, scattering them across the floor.
10. In the classic cartoon, Road Runner outwits Wile E. Coyote by using dynamite to blow up a pile of anvils and bags of chips.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chips>