

CHIRM

Meaning: Chirm (noun): a cheerful or lively chirping sound made by small birds.

1. The morning chirm of sparrows in the hedgerow was a cheerful start to the day.
2. From the canopy, a constant chirm of unseen birds created a vibrant backdrop to the forest hike.
3. The garden came alive with the soft chirm of finches gathering at the feeder.
4. He found the distant chirm of the playground comforting, a sound of simple childhood joy.
5. The documentary's audio perfectly captured the complex chirm of a tropical rainforest.
6. As we entered the aviary, we were enveloped by the overwhelming chirm of a hundred different species.
7. The quiet chirm of chicks emanated from the nest hidden in the barn's eaves.
8. The chirm of starlings gathering for their evening roost filled the dusky sky.
9. She paused her reading to listen to the pleasant chirm of birds outside her window.
10. The sudden chirm of alarm calls signaled a hawk's presence, silencing the other woodland sounds.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chirm>