

CHIROGRAPHIST

Meaning: A chirographist is a skilled calligrapher or scribe who specializes in the art of handwriting and the creation of manuscripts.

1. The medieval manuscript's beauty was a testament to the skill of the anonymous chirographist.
2. As a master chirographist, she was commissioned to create the official wedding invitations for the royal family.
3. The museum's exhibit featured the delicate tools and inks used by a 17th-century chirographist.
4. He studied for years under a renowned chirographist to perfect his calligraphic script.
5. The document's authenticity was confirmed by an expert chirographist who analyzed the handwriting.
6. In an age of digital type, the work of a skilled chirographist is increasingly rare and valued.
7. The chirographist carefully dipped his quill into the inkwell before beginning the elaborate lettering.
8. Her reputation as the finest chirographist in the city earned her prestigious clients from law firms and galleries.
9. The will was rendered invalid after a chirographist proved the signature was a forgery.
10. The art of the chirographist involves not just penmanship, but a deep understanding of form and spacing.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chirographist>