

CHIRPINGLY

Meaning: CHIRPINGLY: in a manner that resembles or is characteristic of the cheerful, high-pitched sounds made by birds; expressing a lively or cheerful tone.

1. The small bird answered chirpingly from its perch in the blossoming cherry tree.
2. "Good morning!" she said chirpingly, her voice full of optimistic energy.
3. The cricket sang chirpingly in the tall grass, a constant soundtrack to the summer night.
4. He reported the good news chirpingly, unable to contain his delight.
5. The sparrows conversed chirpingly on the telephone wire, a lively avian committee.
6. Despite the early hour, the receptionist greeted every visitor chirpingly.
7. The old radio emitted the signal chirpingly, a series of cheerful beeps and static.
8. She whistled chirpingly along with the song playing on her headphones.
9. The keypad on the security door beeped chirpingly as she entered the code.
10. The children's laughter echoed chirpingly across the sun-drenched playground.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chirpingly>