

CHISEL

Meaning: Chisel: a tool with a sharpened edge used for carving or cutting hard materials like stone or wood.

1. The sculptor carefully selected a fine chisel to define the intricate details of the marble portrait.
 2. With a few precise taps of the mallet, he used the chisel to split the granite block along its natural fault line.
 3. The old woodcarver's favorite chisel had a handle worn smooth by decades of use.
 4. You'll need a cold chisel and a heavy hammer to cut through that hardened steel bolt.
 5. The artist used a chisel to etch her signature into the base of the finished bronze statue.
 6. He patiently worked the chisel around the mortise, ensuring the tenon would fit perfectly.
 7. The stone steps were worn down and chiseled by centuries of passing footsteps.
 8. Her features were so sharp and defined they looked as if they had been chiseled from stone.
 9. The carpenter sharpened his chisel on a honing stone before beginning the delicate joinery.
 10. Using a chisel, the archaeologist carefully cleared the dirt from around the ancient artifact.
 11. The sculptor carefully selected a fine chisel to add intricate details to the marble bust.
 12. He used a cold chisel and a heavy hammer to split the old, rusted bolt.
 13. Over centuries, the relentless waves helped chisel the dramatic cliffs into arches and caves.
 14. Years of hard work and discipline began to chisel his once-soft physique into defined muscle.
 15. The artisan's chisel slipped, leaving a small but permanent gouge in the antique wooden chest.
 16. The lawyer's sharp questions seemed designed to chisel away at the witness's credibility.
 17. You'll need a sharp wood chisel to clean out the mortise for the new hinge.
 18. The wind and sand had chiseled the canyon walls into stunning, otherworldly formations.
 19. She used a chisel-point calligraphy pen to create elegant, sweeping strokes on the invitation.
 20. The contractor used a power chisel to quickly remove the old, cracked tiles from the floor.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chisel>