

CHITINOUS

Meaning: Chitinous refers to being composed of or resembling chitin, a tough, protective substance found in the exoskeletons of arthropods and in the cell walls of some fungi.

1. The chitinous exoskeleton of the crab provides both protection and structural support.
2. Scientists study chitinous substances to explore their potential in biodegradable materials.
3. Many insects possess a chitinous cuticle that helps them retain moisture in dry environments.
4. Researchers are investigating the role of chitinous components in the diets of various marine animals.
5. The distinctive chitinous texture of the mushroom cap makes it a fascinating subject for study in mycology.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chitinous>