

CHITON

Meaning: Chiton: a marine mollusk characterized by a shell made up of eight overlapping plates, often found in intertidal zones.

1. The chiton is a unique marine mollusk known for its distinctive shell composed of eight overlapping plates.
2. During our tide pool exploration, we spotted a colorful chiton clinging to a rock.
3. Chitons have a strong foot that allows them to cling tightly to rocky surfaces even in strong waves.
4. Scientists study chitons to understand their evolutionary adaptations to harsh marine environments.
5. A chiton's diet primarily consists of algae, which it scrapes off surfaces using its radula.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chiton>