

CHLORIC

Meaning: Chloric refers to a chemical substance related to or derived from chlorine, particularly in the context of chloric acid and the chloric ion, which are involved in oxidation and various chemical reactions.

1. Chloric acid is a strong oxidizing agent commonly used in laboratories.
2. The chloric ion plays a significant role in various chemical reactions.
3. Researchers studied the stability of chloric compounds under different conditions.
4. Due to its reactive nature, chloric substances must be handled with care.
5. In environmental chemistry, chloric derivatives can impact water quality assessments.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chloric>