CHLORIDIC

Meaning: Chloridic refers to a substance, particularly an acid, that contains chlorine, especially in the form of chloride ions, and is characterized by strong acidity.

1. Chloridic acid is often used in various industrial applications due to its strong acidity.
2. The researchers discovered that the chloridic solution had a remarkable effect on the chemical reaction.
3. In the laboratory, we prepared a chloridic compound to test its reactivity with organic materials.
4. The chloridic nature of the solvent made it essential for the purification process.
5. Understanding the properties of chloridic substances is crucial for chemists working with halides.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chloridic