

CHLORITIC

Meaning: Chloritic refers to a greenish tint or coloration, often associated with certain minerals or conditions, particularly in the context of skin appearance or geological formations.

1. The patient's skin appeared chloritic, prompting immediate medical evaluation.
2. Chloritic minerals are often associated with the alteration of iron-rich rocks.
3. The garden's chloritic foliage indicated a possible deficiency in essential nutrients.
4. She remarked that the chloritic hue of the leaves suggested they were struggling for sunlight.
5. Scientists studied the chloritic regions to understand the environmental impacts on plant health.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chloritic>