

CHLOROPEPTIC

Meaning: Chloropeptic refers to a type of compound or treatment that aids in digestion and may influence enzyme activity.

1. The physician recommended a chloropeptic treatment to alleviate her digestive discomfort.
2. Chloropeptic compounds are often used in research to study their effects on enzyme activity.
3. After the experiment, the scientists noted the significant role of chloropeptic substances in protein digestion.
4. Many nutritionists advocate for natural alternatives to chloropeptic products for better gut health.
5. The student was fascinated by the historical development of chloropeptic medications in pharmacology.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chloropeptic>