

CHOCK

Meaning: Chock: a wedge or block used to prevent the movement of an object, such as stabilizing a workbench or securing a vehicle's tires.

1. The carpenter used a wooden chock to stabilize the workbench while he sawed the planks.
2. During the storm, they placed a chock behind the tires to keep the car from rolling.
3. She found a small chock in the toolbox, perfect for propping open the door.
4. To prevent the boat from drifting, they secured it with a chock on the dock.
5. The dog eagerly chewed on the chock he found in the yard, mistaking it for a toy.
6. The hiker used a rock to chock the door of the cabin against the wind.
7. During the storm, they decided to chock the boat to prevent it from drifting away.
8. The engineer suggested using a wooden block to chock the wheels of the truck during repairs.
9. She placed a chock under the tire to ensure the vehicle wouldn't roll down the incline.
10. In a pinch, a stack of books can serve as a makeshift chock for a wobbly table.
11. The horse was secured with a chock to prevent it from moving during the vet's examination.
12. She placed a wooden chock behind the wheel to ensure the car wouldn't roll away.
13. The sudden stop caused the load to shift, forcing them to use a chock to stabilize it.
14. He found a sturdy chock in the garage that perfectly fit under the door to keep it open.
15. After the storm, they had to chock the boat to prevent it from drifting away in the strong current.
16. He used a wooden chock to prevent the wheel from rolling down the hill.
17. The door creaked as he wedged a chock underneath to keep it open.
18. She felt a sudden chock of surprise when she saw the unexpected visitor.
19. To stabilize the trailer, they placed a chock behind each tire before unhooking it.
20. The chock of realization hit him when he understood the implications of her words.
21. The old wooden door creaked as I used a chock to keep it open on the windy day.
22. To prevent the car from rolling downhill, he placed a chock behind the rear tires.

23. The campers used a chock to stabilize their tent against the strong gusts of wind.
24. As the boat approached the dock, the crew prepared to use a chock to secure it in place.
25. During the construction project, workers relied on a chock to support the heavy beams.
26. He used a wooden chock to secure the wheel of his trailer.
27. The door wouldn't stay open, so I placed a chock underneath it.
28. During the storm, we needed to chock the boat to prevent it from drifting.
29. The mechanic advised me to chock the tires before starting any repairs on the vehicle.
30. After the race, the team placed chocks behind the cars to keep them in place on the incline.

*Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chock>*