

CHOKY

Meaning: Choky (adjective): characterized by a stifling or suffocating quality, often due to oppressive heat or tension in the atmosphere.

1. The atmosphere in the small, crowded room felt unbearably choky, making it hard to breathe.
2. After hours of intense debate, the tension in the air became so choky that no one could think clearly.
3. Her emotions were so overwhelming that she found herself in a choky state, struggling to articulate her thoughts.
4. The old, unused attic was filled with a choky dust that made everyone sneeze the moment they stepped inside.
5. As the smoke from the fire filled the air, the choking smell created a choky environment that forced them to evacuate.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/choky>