

CHONDRIFICATION

Meaning: Chondrification is the process by which cartilage is formed from mesenchymal tissue during embryonic development.

1. Chondrification is a crucial process in the development of cartilage in embryos.
2. The study of chondrification has shed light on various developmental disorders.
3. Researchers are exploring how chondrification can be influenced by environmental factors.
4. In some species, chondrification occurs at different stages of growth and development.
5. Understanding chondrification helps scientists improve tissue engineering techniques.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chondrification>