

CHOP

Meaning: Chop: to cut something into smaller pieces, typically using a knife.

1. I need to chop the vegetables before starting the stir-fry.
2. He watched the chef skillfully chop the herbs for the sauce.
3. After a long day, she decided to chop some wood for the fireplace.
4. The instructor taught us how to chop the onions without crying.
5. They planned to chop down the old tree that was threatening the house.
6. She decided to chop the vegetables into small pieces for the stir-fry.
7. The carpenter used a sharp saw to chop the wood into manageable lengths.
8. After a long day at work, he liked to chop some fresh herbs for dinner.
9. They watched the chef expertly chop the onions with remarkable speed.
10. To make the soup more flavorful, you should chop the garlic finely before adding it.
11. I will chop the vegetables finely for the salad.
12. He decided to chop the wood for the fire.
13. She can chop the garlic quickly and efficiently.
14. The chef demonstrated how to chop herbs with precision.
15. They watched as he skillfully chopped the fish for the sushi.
16. She decided to chop the vegetables finely for the stir-fry.
17. The chef demonstrated how to chop the herbs quickly and efficiently.
18. After a long day, I enjoy chopping up fresh ingredients for a hearty soup.
19. He used a sharp knife to chop the wood for the fire pit.
20. To save time, she opted to chop the fruit in bulk for the week ahead.
21. The chef will chop the herbs right before serving to preserve their flavor.
22. He used a heavy cleaver to chop through the thick bone with ease.
23. After a long day at work, she enjoyed relaxing while chopping fresh ingredients for dinner.

24. The carpenter instructed his apprentice on how to chop the wood safely and efficiently.
25. She decided to chop the vegetables finely to enhance the flavor of the dish.
26. The woodcutter swung his axe and made a clean chop through the thick log.
27. After a long day at work, he felt the need to chop his hair into a shorter style.
28. To prepare for the winter, they had to chop enough firewood to last for months.
29. The chef demonstrated how to chop herbs quickly and efficiently with a sharp knife.
30. The sound of the chef's knife expertly chopping through the meat filled the kitchen.
31. He used a hatchet to chop the firewood into manageable pieces.
32. After the storm, we had to chop down the fallen tree in our backyard.
33. To enhance the flavor, she remembered to chop some fresh herbs for the sauce.
34. The chef skillfully used a large knife to chop the herbs.
35. I watched him chop the wood with incredible precision.
36. After a long day, she liked to unwind by chopping up some fresh fruits.
37. They needed to chop down the old tree that was damaging their fence.
38. The chef demonstrated how to chop the herbs with a sharp knife.
39. After the storm, we had to chop the fallen branches from the yard.
40. He took a moment to chop the wood for the campfire later that night.
41. To make the soup more flavorful, you should chop the garlic before adding it.