

CHORUS

Meaning: A chorus is a group of singers performing together, or a simultaneous sound produced by a group of voices or instruments.

1. The choir's harmonious chorus filled the cathedral, echoing beautifully off the stone walls.
2. As the sun set, a chorus of crickets began to serenade the warm evening air.
3. In the musical, the actors joined together for a powerful chorus that brought the audience to tears.
4. During the protest, the crowd united in a chorus of voices demanding change and justice.
5. The chorus of the song was so catchy that everyone found themselves singing along by the end.
6. The chorus of the song echoed beautifully through the concert hall.
7. As the choir sang in harmony, the rich sound of their chorus filled the air.
8. During the play, the chorus provided commentary that added depth to the story.
9. She couldn't help but join in when the crowd began to sing the familiar chorus.
10. The chorus of birds outside my window greeted me each morning with their cheerful melodies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chorus>