

CHOWDER

Meaning: Chowder is a thick, creamy soup typically made with seafood or vegetables, often containing milk or cream.

1. The seafood chowder was rich and creamy, with generous chunks of fresh fish and shrimp.
2. On chilly evenings, nothing warms the soul quite like a bowl of hearty clam chowder.
3. She experimented with various spices to make her chowder stand out at the local competition.
4. The restaurant's signature chowder was so popular that customers often lined up for it.
5. As the storm rolled in, they gathered around the stove, eager to enjoy a comforting pot of potato chowder.
6. The clam chowder served at the seaside restaurant was creamy and delicious.
7. She whipped up a hearty corn chowder to warm us on the chilly evening.
8. The chef's secret ingredient made his seafood chowder a favorite among locals.
9. On rainy days, nothing beats a bowl of rich potato chowder with crusty bread.
10. He savored every spoonful of the lobster chowder, enjoying its rich flavor.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chowder>