

CHRISMATION

Meaning: Chrismation is a sacramental anointing with holy oil in the Eastern Orthodox Church, signifying the reception of the Holy Spirit, typically performed after baptism.

1. Chrismation is an important sacrament in the Eastern Orthodox Church, symbolizing the receiving of the Holy Spirit.
2. During the baptism ceremony, chrismation is often performed immediately after the water ritual.
3. The oil used in chrismation is blessed by the bishop, signifying its sacred purpose.
4. In many traditions, chrismation is seen as a form of spiritual anointing that strengthens the recipient's faith.
5. Families often gather to witness the chrismation of their loved ones, celebrating this significant milestone in their spiritual journey.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chrismation>