

CHRISTIANLY

Meaning: In a manner that reflects the teachings and values of Christianity, especially in showing compassion, forgiveness, and kindness.

1. She approached the situation Christianly, offering forgiveness to those who had wronged her.
2. The group acted Christianly, providing food and shelter to the homeless in their community.
3. He spoke Christianly, emphasizing love and compassion in his message.
4. They resolved their differences Christianly, choosing dialogue over conflict.
5. In her volunteer work, she embodied a Christianly spirit, always ready to lend a helping hand.
6. She approached the difficult situation Christianly, always seeking to show compassion and understanding.
7. In his speech, he urged the community to act Christianly, emphasizing the importance of love and forgiveness.
8. The group worked Christianly to help those in need, embodying the values of charity and service.
9. Even in times of conflict, they managed to resolve their differences Christianly, maintaining respect for one another.
10. Her actions were a true reflection of living Christianly, as she consistently prioritized the welfare of others above her own.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/christianly>