

CHROMATICALLY

Meaning: Chromatically refers to the use of colors or tones in a way that emphasizes their vividness or variety, often to enhance emotional expression or create tension.

1. The artist chose to paint the landscape chromatically, using vibrant hues to evoke emotion.
2. In the experimental music piece, the composer arranged the notes chromatically to create a sense of tension.
3. Chromatically diverse gardens showcase a range of colors that attract various pollinators.
4. The fashion designer's collection was chromatically inspired by the changing seasons, featuring rich autumnal tones.
5. In photography, adjusting the lighting can enhance the image chromatically, making colors pop vividly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chromatically>