

CHROMATROPE

Meaning: A chromatrope is a device or instrument used to produce and demonstrate patterns of color and light, often through rotation or movement.

1. The artist used a chromatrope to create vibrant color patterns that mesmerized the audience.
2. In the science exhibit, a chromatrope demonstrated the principles of light and color mixing.
3. As the chromatrope spun, its shifting hues captivated the children gathered around.
4. The intricate design of the chromatrope revealed the beauty of mathematical patterns in art.
5. At the festival, the display of the chromatrope was a highlight, drawing in crowds from all directions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chromatrope>