

CHROMOTYPE

Meaning: Chromotype refers to the specific genetic makeup or variation of an organism that influences its coloration patterns.

1. The chromotype of the organism was determined through advanced genetic analysis.
2. Researchers were surprised to find a new chromotype that exhibited unique coloration patterns.
3. Understanding the chromotype can provide insights into the species' adaptability to different environments.
4. The study aimed to correlate chromotypes with specific ecological niches in the rainforest.
5. By altering the chromotype, scientists hoped to enhance the plant's resilience to climate change.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chromotype>