

CHRONOGRAPH

Meaning: A chronograph is a type of watch or device that functions as a stopwatch, allowing for precise measurement of time intervals.

1. The watchmaker is renowned for his intricate chronographs that combine precision with elegance.
2. She used the chronograph feature on her smartwatch to time her lap during the race.
3. Many pilots rely on a chronograph to measure time intervals during flight operations.
4. His collection includes several vintage chronographs that are highly sought after by enthusiasts.
5. The chronograph's ability to measure elapsed time made it a favorite among athletes and engineers alike.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chronograph>