CHUNAM

Meaning: Chunam is a plaster made from lime and sand used in traditional Indian architecture to create a smooth finish on walls.

1. Chunam is often used in traditional Indian architecture to create a smooth finish on walls.
2. The craftsmen mixed lime with sand to prepare the chunam for the new building project.
3. In some regions, chunam is favored for its eco-friendly properties and durability.
4. During the restoration of the historic temple, artisans carefully applied chunam to preserve its beauty.
5. The vibrant colors of the chunam added a unique charm to the courtyard of the house.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/chunam