

CIBORIUM

Meaning: CIBORIUM: A decorative canopy or structure, often supported by columns, that covers an altar or sacred object in a church or serves as a container for the Eucharist.

1. The ornate ciborium above the altar drew the attention of all the worshippers.
2. In the museum, the ancient ciborium was displayed as a testament to medieval craftsmanship.
3. During the service, the priest carefully placed the Eucharist inside the ciborium.
4. The ciborium, adorned with intricate carvings, was a highlight of the church's architecture.
5. After the renovation, the ciborium was restored to its former glory, shining under the stained glass windows.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ciborium>