

CICATRIZATION

Meaning: Cicatrization is the process of forming scar tissue during the healing of a wound.

1. Cicatrization is a crucial process in wound healing that involves the formation of scar tissue.
2. The doctor explained that cicatrization can take several weeks, depending on the severity of the injury.
3. Impaired cicatrization may lead to chronic wounds that require medical intervention.
4. In some cases, excessive cicatrization can result in keloids, which are raised scars on the skin.
5. Research on cicatrization has led to new treatments that enhance the healing process and minimize scarring.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cicatrization>