

CICERONE

Meaning: Cicerone: a knowledgeable guide who provides information and insights about historical sites or artworks.

1. The experienced cicerone guided us through the ancient ruins, sharing fascinating stories about their history.
2. As we entered the art gallery, a knowledgeable cicerone explained the significance of each masterpiece on display.
3. Traveling through Italy, we hired a cicerone to enhance our understanding of the local culture and cuisine.
4. The cicerone's passion for the city's heritage made the tour both informative and enjoyable.
5. With the help of a cicerone, we discovered hidden gems in the city that we would have otherwise overlooked.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cicerone>