

CICERONIAN

Meaning: Cicero-nian refers to a style of writing or speaking characterized by eloquence, persuasive rhetoric, and classical sophistication, reminiscent of the oratory of the Roman statesman Cicero.

1. The professor praised her essay for its Cicero-nian eloquence and persuasive argumentation.
2. During the debate, he employed a Cicero-nian style that captivated the audience and swayed their opinions.
3. Her writing was marked by a Cicero-nian flair, blending classical rhetoric with modern themes.
4. In his speeches, he often adopted a Cicero-nian approach, emphasizing clarity and rhetorical power.
5. The book explores the influence of Cicero-nian principles on contemporary political discourse.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ciceronian>