

CIPHERER

Meaning: Cipherer: a person who encodes or decodes messages, especially for the purpose of ensuring secure communication.

1. The skilled cipherer worked late into the night, meticulously encoding sensitive messages.
2. In a world of digital communication, the role of a cipherer has become increasingly important for cybersecurity.
3. During the war, the cipherer was responsible for ensuring that important information remained confidential.
4. She aspired to become a master cipherer, fascinated by the complexities of encryption techniques.
5. The ancient texts revealed that a cipherer had once protected royal secrets with ingenious codes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cipherer>