

CIRCULATION

Meaning: Circulation refers to the movement or flow of a substance, such as blood in the body or information within a community.

1. The circulation of blood through the heart is essential for maintaining life.
2. Public libraries play a vital role in improving the circulation of information in the community.
3. The magazine has a large circulation, reaching thousands of readers each month.
4. Improving circulation can enhance overall health and wellness, especially in older adults.
5. Social media has transformed the circulation of news, allowing information to spread rapidly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/circulation>