

CIRCULINE

Meaning: Circuline: a curve that resembles a circle but has varying radii, often used in design to convey movement.

1. The artist used a circuline design to create a sense of movement in her painting.
2. In geometry, a circuline is a curve that resembles the shape of a circle but has varying radii.
3. The architect incorporated circuline patterns into the building's facade to enhance its visual appeal.
4. During the lecture, the professor explained the properties of circuline shapes in advanced mathematics.
5. The dancer's routine featured circuline movements that captivated the audience with their fluidity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/circuline>