

CIRCUMCLUSION

Meaning: Circumclusion refers to the act of surrounding or enclosing, especially in the context of excluding or omitting certain arguments or perspectives from consideration.

1. The concept of circumclusion can be difficult to grasp without proper context.
2. During the debate, the speaker's circumclusion of the opposing arguments left many attendees frustrated.
3. In biology, circumclusion refers to the process of surrounding and enclosing a particular cell or structure.
4. The artist used circumclusion in her work to emphasize the isolation of the subject.
5. Circumclusion in legal terms often pertains to the exclusion of certain evidence from a trial.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/circumclusion>