

CIRCUMFER

Meaning: To circumfer means to travel around or encircle something.

1. To circumfer the island would take several days of hiking along the coastal trails.
2. The architect designed the building's entrance to circumfer a large courtyard filled with greenery.
3. During the race, the runners had to circumfer the track multiple times before reaching the finish line.
4. The ancient map showed a path that would allow travelers to circumfer the mountain range.
5. She used a compass to help her circumfer the dense forest without losing her way.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/circumfer>