

CIRCUMSPECTNESS

Meaning: Circumspectness is the quality of being cautious and considerate in decision-making, especially regarding potential consequences and the feelings of others.

1. Her circumspectness in negotiating the deal ensured that all parties felt valued and heard.
2. The leader's circumspectness in addressing sensitive issues garnered him respect from both supporters and opponents.
3. In matters of finance, his circumspectness often saved the company from potential losses.
4. She approached the unfamiliar territory with circumspectness, weighing her options carefully before making a decision.
5. His circumspectness often led him to take a step back and assess the situation before jumping to conclusions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/circumspectness>