

CIRCUMVALLATION

Meaning: Circumvallation is the construction of a defensive wall or fortification surrounding a place, particularly to protect it from attackers.

1. The ancient city was protected by a formidable circumvallation that deterred invaders for centuries.
2. During the siege, the troops worked tirelessly to complete the circumvallation around the enemy stronghold.
3. Archaeologists discovered remnants of a circumvallation that once encircled the historic fortress.
4. The strategic design of the circumvallation allowed for better defense and control over the surrounding area.
5. In military architecture, circumvallation refers to the construction of fortifications to encircle a target.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/circumvallation>