

CIRRIPED

Meaning: CIRRIPED: A type of marine crustacean, commonly known as barnacles, that typically attaches itself to surfaces in coastal environments.

1. The cirripeds attached to the rocky shore create a fascinating ecosystem.
2. Researchers have studied the feeding habits of various cirripeds to understand their role in marine environments.
3. Cirripeds are unique arthropods known for their barnacle-like shells and sessile lifestyle.
4. During the dive, we observed numerous cirripeds clinging tightly to the submerged surfaces.
5. The diversity of cirripeds in the tidal zone highlights the adaptability of marine species to harsh conditions.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cirriped>