

CIT

Meaning: CIT (Crisis Intervention Team) refers to a specialized program designed to enhance police response to individuals experiencing mental health crises through training in crisis intervention techniques.

1. The CIT program focuses on improving community interactions with law enforcement.
2. She earned a certificate in CIT, which helped her understand crisis intervention techniques better.
3. The conference on mental health featured a session dedicated to the importance of CIT training for first responders.
4. His experience with CIT allowed him to handle the situation with compassion and professionalism.
5. CIT initiatives have proven effective in reducing incidents of violence during mental health crises.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cit>