

CITINER

Meaning: CITINER: A person who serves as a mediator or facilitator within a community or ecosystem, often involved in resolving conflicts or maintaining balance.

1. The citiner was a key figure in the local council, often mediating disputes among residents.
2. In his research, the scientist discovered that the citiner played a crucial role in the ecosystem.
3. After years of studying various species, she finally identified the elusive citiner in the dense forest.
4. The citiner's unique characteristics made it a subject of fascination for biologists around the world.
5. During the field trip, the students were excited to catch a glimpse of the rare citiner in its natural habitat.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/citiner>