

CITTERN-HEAD

Meaning: Cittern-head: the part of a cittern (a stringed musical instrument) that holds the strings and contributes to its sound and aesthetic design.

1. The musician carefully crafted the cittern-head, ensuring it resonated perfectly.
2. Intricate designs adorned the cittern-head, reflecting the artistry of the maker.
3. As she played, the bright sound of the cittern-head filled the room with warmth.
4. He marveled at the craftsmanship of the cittern-head, a testament to its historical significance.
5. During the concert, the cittern-head shone under the spotlight, captivating the audience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/cittern-head>