

CIVILIST

Meaning: A civilist is an advocate or expert in civil rights and social justice, focusing on the protection and promotion of individual rights within the legal framework.

1. The civilist argued passionately for the protection of individual rights within the legal framework.
2. As a civilist, she dedicated her career to advocating for social justice and equality.
3. In the debate, the civilist emphasized the importance of civic engagement in a democracy.
4. His background as a civilist enriched the discussions on urban planning and community development.
5. The civilist's research highlighted the critical role of law in shaping public policy and governance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/civilist>